'THEY SHALL GROW NOT OLD, AS WE THAT ARE LEFT GROW OLD'

Across the world there will be commemorations during the month of November to remember the fallen of the First World War,
along with those who have died in conflicts ever since. There is always a certain poignancy as we remember the fallen of the first WW, because it was said at the time to be the war to end all wars; sadly that has been far from reality.

The words quoted above are used at commemoration services across the world, and come from a poem by Robert Binyon, first published in The Times newspaper in September 1914; not long into the war. The poem is titled 'For the Fallen,' and the lines are regularly used to proclaim and affirm the resolve of nations and communities neither to forget nor overlook the sacrifice of the First World War generation and beyond.

Few will know who wrote the poem, yet, and I quote; 'the poem's smooth, rhythmic flow and formal, elegant language, embody the profound sense of respect, admiration and grief that hangs over modern acts of collective remembrance.' The poem was not written by a soldier who had seen action, but by a civilian less than a month after the start of the conflict.

'For the Fallen' was written as news began to filter through of the fighting at Mons and the retreat that followed. Compared to the following years the losses of life were relatively small in 1914, but still a great shock. What is remarkable about the poem is that it anticipates the later loss of life, and seeks to give comfort to all who will endure them.

With every blessing,
Philip and Denise.

For the Fallen (cont'd)

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady band aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night.

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.

Robert Laurence Binyon (1869- 1943).

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

PRIORY ROOM

I am looking for a volunteer who would be interested in managing the bookings for the Priory Room in Walsham-le-Willows, and generally overseeing the building, which does NOT include unlocking/locking. If this is something which you feel would be of interest, please do get in touch.

WATTISFIELD

Having been closed for a long period, St Margaret's Church Wattisfield was re-opened for services Remembrance Sunday 2017, and has been periodically having services ever since. The church has a very loyal band of day to day helpers, to whom I am most grateful. However, there is no formal Parochial Church Council and as such no Treasurer. If anybody feels that they could offer their services in this area please get in touch. Basically, we are looking at very minimal book-keeping and occasionally paying monies into the bank.

Commemoration of Suffolk Great War soldier's burial sites

On this the centenary of the end of the Great War an event is being organised to recognise and pay homage to those whose death was attributable to their service in the First World War and who are buried in Suffolk under the auspices of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission.

The intention is that on the 8th of November groups of local schoolchildren will assemble at the location of the graves and will be told about the connections the soldier had with their community, his service history and the importance of remembering the sacrifice he and others made. Then at 11am, throughout the County, representatives of those same children will lay poppy crosses on each grave followed by a minute silence.

Each RBL Branch in the County are responsible for the graves in their area. Stanton branch have 10 graves in five different locations. They are as follows:

Bardwell Baptist Church.

Private Archibald Oscar Plummer (Essex Regt.)

Bardwell Peter and Paul Church.

Private Alfred Harold Hazelwood (Suffolk Regt.)

Rickinghall Superior St Marys Church.

Private Ernest Matthews (Labour Corps.)

Walsham Le Willows Cemetery.

Private Sidney Arthur Cracknell (Kings Royal Rifles)

Private William Edgar Oxborrow (Royal West. Kents)

Wattisfield Cemetery.

Private Edward Kerry (Royal Fusiliers)

Private Ernest William Landymore (Queens West Surrey Regt.)

Private George N Miller (Suffolk Regt.)

Rifleman Edgar Redvers Moule (Kings Royal Rifles)

Private George Rivett (Royal Fusiliers)

It has been 100 years since these brave men were buried and so little is readily known about each of them. We need to tell the children as much as we can about who they were and how they link with the communities. Do you know about these soldiers? Have you any information about relatives we might contact? If you are a local historian can you help us with any information from your research? We would be very grateful for any help you can give us. If you can help with any information at all about the above-mentioned soldiers or their relatives please contact:

Finningham Parish Council calls out for votes to bag a share of Tesco's bag fund

Finningham Parish Council is bidding to bag a massive cash boost from the Tesco Bags of Help initiative.

Tesco teamed up with Groundwork to launch its community funding scheme, which sees grants of £4,000, £2,000 and £1,000 raised from carrier bag sales in Tesco stores awarded to local community projects.

Three groups in every Tesco region have been shortlisted to receive the cash award and shoppers are being invited to head along to Tesco stores to vote for who they think should take away the top grant.

Finningham Parish Council is one of the groups on the shortlist.

Finningham Playground Refurbishment

Voting is open in Tesco Stowmarket between 1st September and 31st October, 2018 and customers will cast their vote using a token given to them at the check-out in store each time they shop. There is no need to purchase a bag.

Tesco's Bags of Help project has already delivered over £56 million to more than 16,000 projects across Britain. Tesco customers get the chance to vote for three different groups every time they shop. Every other month, when votes are collected, three groups in each of Tesco's regions will be awarded funding.

We have requested the funds to replace the slide which had to be removed because it did not and could not meet the safety requirements.

THE WESTHORPE TRUST

The Westhorpe Trust is made up of several historic funds. The oldest is from the will of Richard Brown in 1641, who lived in Westhorpe and left ten shillings a year to the poor of the parish. Income also came from the properties at Town Yard which in the 19th century contained the parish workhouse and some arable land at Botany Farm, Walsham le Willows.

The Trust's income is divided into three parts all for the benefit of the inhabitants of the parish:

1. Westhorpe Parochial Church Council for the upkeep and services for St Margaret's Church;
2. The Education Foundation which gives every child a book token at Christmas. Those at university, college or other forms of Further or Higher Education or apprenticeships are given grants each academic year towards tuition fees, travel expenses, books, computers and other essential equipment. Help is also offered with other expenses such as school uniform, books and possibly school trips for those in nursery, primary and secondary school as well as others taking educational courses.
3. The Village Fund provides family and personal grants for any kind of assistance, emergency payments, help with transport and heating costs, grants towards village events and many other things which need funding and are of benefit to the parish. If you feel the Trust can help you or your family, an application form is available to download from the village website - www.westhorpe.onesuffolk.net or get in touch with the Secretary – details below.

All applications are treated in the strictest confidence

Flowers in the Field - Nurses in Wartime

Westhorpe Village Hall on Friday 2nd November 2018

Did you know it's estimated over 1,500 nurses made the ultimate sacrifice during WW1? Sadly, very few are commemorated on war memorials.

Nurses are the forgotten heroines of war. These brave women faced dangers we cannot imagine as they tended the wounded. Many were volunteers living and working in cramped & exhausting conditions. They tended the most appalling human injuries and conditions, often with primitive treatments, a lack of medical supplies and frequently within the sound of on-going battles.

Sandra Taylor, a retired senior nurse, now spends her time delivering informative & interesting presentations on the subject of nursing in wartime & has kindly agreed to give such a presentation which includes artefacts, equipment and clothing.

As we commemorate the 100th anniversary of what was supposed to be the 'war to end all wars' Sandra's presentation focuses on the development of nursing services prior to WW1 and the conditions and dangers these women faced between 1914 and 1919. Telling their story serves to remember these brave women and recognise their invaluable contribution in caring for and saving the lives of thousands of men, sometimes at the cost of their own.

Please join us at Westhorpe Village Hall on Friday 2nd November at 7.00pm. Your entry fee of £5 will be donated equally between SSAFA (Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association) and to St. Margaret's Church, Westhorpe.

Advance tickets are not required, but please call Steve or Gilly on 01449 – 782949 to indicate your wish to attend. Seating will be prioritised to those who have done this.

WATTISFIELD TOWN ESTATE CHARITY

This Charity administers a modest income from lands given by the Rust, Osborne and other families of Wattisfield for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Parish. We are able to give grants throughout the year, to those less well off in the Parish and those who find they are in need of financial assistance because of unexpected additional expenses.

At this time of year we have given grants to help with school educational trips or for the purchase of books for study.

Grants are also given in cases of special hardship, for example due to serious illness, accident, redundancy or bereavement. We have also given grants for unexpected travel expenses.

Residents who do find themselves in difficulty and who could benefit from some financial help may apply directly to the Charity and each case will be assessed on its own merits.

To obtain an application form please write in confidence to:

The Trustees, Wattisfield Town Estate Charity, Hall View House, Chapel Road, Wattisfield, IP22 1NU. Or email: mikfirehouse-wattisfieldtec@yahoo.co.uk

Natural Balance Reflexology

Reflexology is a non-intrusive complementary therapy, by applying pressure on particular points of your feet, hands or face it can help your body restore its natural balance.

Reflexology has a number of benefits including improved sleep, improved circulation and reduced stress levels.

I am a qualified reflexologist and have completed additional training in maternity reflexology and reflexology for anxiety and mild depression.

I have also completed training in facial reflexology, other benefits can include smoother, glowing and healthier skin.

Indian head massage now also available.
Indian head massage works on your neck, shoulders and upper back as well as your head and marma points. Not only is the experience very relaxing, Indian Head Massage can help to reduce muscle tension, improve sleep, promote hair growth and stimulate lymphatic drainage.
